1 1 2	متن هر بخش را بخوانید و با توجه به مفهوم گزینه درست را انتخاب کنید. It is difficult to find the best method of learning English. Is it better to study in Britain or America or to study in your own country? The advantage of going to Britain seem absolutely clear. Firstly, you will be able to listen to the language all the time you are in the country. You will be surrounded completely by the language wherever you go. Another advantage is that you have to speak the language if you are with other people. In Italy, it is always possible, in the class, to speak Italian if you want to and the learning is slower. On the other hand, there are also advantages to staying at home to study. You don't have to make big changes to your life. As well as this, it is also a lot cheaper than going to Britain but it is never possible to achieve the results of living in the UK. If you have a good teacher in Italy, I think you can learn in a more concentrated way than being in Britain without going to school. So, in conclusion, I think that if you have enough time and enough money, the best choice is to spend some time in the UK. This is simply not possible for most people, so being here in Italy is the only option. The most important thing to do in this situation is to maximize your opportunities: to speak only English in class and to try to use English whenever possible outside the class. True / False 22. Learning English in Britain is absolutely better than learning in America. True ◯ False ◯ 23. Listening to the language all the time is the advantage of going to Britain. True ◯ False ◯ Choose the best answer 24. The word "absolutely" in paragraph 2 means …… a. certainly ◯ b. rarely ◯ c. greatly ◯ d. fluently ◯ 25. It is always possible to speak Italian if you want to and the learning is …... a. faster ◯ b. slower ◯ c. stronger ◯ d. weaker ◯ Answer the questions 26. What are the advantages of staying at home to study? 27. How can we maximize our opportunities to learn English?	9

28. In the beginning of the twenty-first century, 204 languages had fewer than 10 speakers and 344 languages had between 10 and 99 speakers. The 548 languages with fewer than 99 speakers make up nearly 8 percent of the world's languages. We call them 'endangered languages'. As the speakers of such languages grow old and die, their languages will die, too.

a. Languages with ninety-nine speakers are called the endangered languages.
b. In the end of 21th century 344 languages had between ten and ninety-nine speakers.
c. The number of endangered languages is less than that of living languages.
d. Only 8 percent of the world's languages have 99 speakers

29. All languages are really valuable, despite their differences. Every language is an amazing means of communication that meets the needs of its own speakers. It is impossible to imagine the world without language. Therefore, we should respect all languages.

a. We should only respect the languages which are endangered.
b. All the languages that are endangered are not valuable.
c. We should respect and value all the languages of the world.
d. It is impossible to think of language without the world.

30. The number of live languages of the world is around 7000, and many of them may not exist in the future. Many researchers are now trying to protect endangered languages. This can save lots of information and cultural values of people all around the world.

a. All the live languages of the world are endangered
b. The endangered languages are only in Australia and south America
c. Not all the languages of the world are endangered
d. A few of languages of the world may not exist in the future

31. Learning a new language doesn't always mean sitting in the classroom and studying language books. In fact, language teachers suggest you to do plenty of extra learning outside of school, places like your home or a library near you.

Learning a language …..

a. always means reading and studying books at school
b. means doing a few extra learning outside school
c. always means day-to-day learning outside classroom
